

NOTICE BY PUBLICATION OF INSURANCE BUSINESS TRANSFER

Case No. CJ-2023-1025

In the District Court of Cleveland County, State of Oklahoma

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE. National Legacy Insurance Company (“NLIC” or “Assuming Reinsurer”), an Oklahoma domestic insurance company, has filed a Petition for court approval to implement a plan to transfer all of the reinsurance agreements underwritten by The Hanover Insurance Company (“Hanover” or “Transferring Reinsurer”), a New Hampshire company, as a participant to the Excess and Casualty Reinsurance (“ECRA”), to NLIC, pursuant to the State of Oklahoma’s Insurance Business Transfer (“IBT”) Act, OKLA. STAT. TIT. 36, § 1681, et seq. This notice by publication is provided pursuant to the IBT Act.

On June 14, 2023, NLIC, in conjunction with Hanover (individually a “Reinsurer” and together the “Reinsurers”), initiated this process by filing an IBT Plan with the Insurance Commissioner of the State of Oklahoma (“Commissioner”) (individually a “Party” and together with the Reinsurers the “Parties”). After evaluating the IBT Plan, the Commissioner, with benefit of the analysis of an Independent Expert, determined the IBT Plan’s approval and implementation will not have a material adverse impact on the interests of Cedants or claimants of reinsurance agreements to be transferred (“Subject Business”).

On August 8, 2023, the Commissioner entered an order (“Commissioner’s Order”) memorializing his determination the IBT Plan will not have a material adverse impact on the interests of Cedants of the Subject Business. The Commissioner’s Order also authorized NLIC to apply to the District Court of Cleveland County, Oklahoma (“Court”), for an Order of Approval and Implementation of the IBT Plan.

On August 25, 2023, NLIC filed a Petition with the Court applying for an Order of Approval and Implementation of the IBT Plan. If the Court enters such an order, Cedants of the Subject Business will not have the option to opt out of or reject the transfer and novation.

The Court will hold a status conference on:

Date: January 2, 2024

Time: 9:00 a.m. CST

before the Honorable Judge Michael Tupper in the District Court of Cleveland County, Courtroom 4A, Cleveland County Courthouse, 201 S. Jones, Norman, OK 73069. During this Status Conference, a trial date (“Approval Hearing”) will be set to consider approval and implementation of the IBT Plan.

The IBT Act allows entities to file comments, objections, evidence and requests to appear before the Court at the Approval Hearing if the entity is a Cedant, or considers himself, herself or itself to be adversely affected by the IBT Plan. However, such filings or appearances shall not confer standing on any entity. All comments, objections, evidence or requests to appear must be filed with the Court no later than December 19, 2023. Such entities and their filings must conform with the processes established by the Court, the Oklahoma Statutes and other applicable rules and laws, including, but are not limited to, serving all Parties with copies of all documents filed with the Court pursuant to OKLA. STAT. TIT. 12, § 2005. All entities shall bear their own costs and attorney fees.

If the Court grants the relief requested in the Petition, it will establish a date or dates (“Effective Date”) upon which NLIC will assume all of the respective obligations of the Subject Business. Upon the Effective Date, NLIC will also be responsible for the administration and payment of all claims and benefits of its assumed obligations.

Upon the Effective Date, NLIC will be directly liable to the Cedants to the same extent as Hanover immediately prior to the Effective Date. Consequently, the Cedants' respective obligations with Hanover will be extinguished. Except for substituting Hanover with NLIC, the respective obligations stated in the Cedants' reinsurance agreements will not change as a result of the IBT Plan.

An electronic copy of the IBT Plan, a common "Questions and Answers" about the IBT Plan, a summary of the Independent Expert Report, a summary of the legal document setting out the terms of the Plan, and the Commissioner's Order is available at:
